This spectacular waterfront setting, overlooking two miles of shoreline along the historic Potomac River, inspired Jack Nicklaus with its pristine natural beauty and rich wildlife. The result is a course that is challenging, fun and set in spectacular surroundings. The course's design has a European flavor to it and features a hardwood forest outline, dramatic vistas, rolling greens and holes along the Potomac River and Powell's Creek.

Potomac Shores is a masterful par-72 layout that offers four sets of tees with a total distance ranging from 4,940 to 7,020 yards. Weaving through mature hardwoods on a hilly peninsula, the course offers dramatic vistas, native wetland buffers and more than 200 feet of show-stopping elevation changes. The strategic nature of the course is complemented with a "fun, fast and beautiful" golf experience that is sure to satisfy any lover of golf.

The new Potomac Shores Golf Clubhouse, a gracious 7,500-square-foot gathering place reminiscent of a Georgian Plantation home with wraparound porches and a traditional carriage house, offers a unique setting for private events.

A state-of-the-art driving range and short-game practice area offer golfers the ability to work on virtually every shot.
